

ENROLL NOW INTAKE 2017/18

TRIPLE QUALIFICATION

(DCS or HDCS + NVQ + BCS)

Diploma in Computer Science (DCS) Course Description:

(Semester one of HDCS and one of iHND)

The comprehensive syllabus of DCS, which has been designed for beginners, catering for students who have passed A/Levels. DCS is the FIRST Semester and the first step in the HDCS course. The whole course consists of 9 Modules, 5 Optional Modules with 30 Credits.

Higher Diploma in Computer Science (HDCS)

(This is a top-up Program for BCS diploma)

Course Description. (Semester two of iHND)

The comprehensive syllabus for HDCS specializes in Software Engineering. It has been designed in accordance with the Sri Lanka Qualification Framework (SLQF) catering for students who have passed A/Levels. This syllabus consists of 19 Modules, 10 Optional Modules with 60 Credits.

HDCS is the only Higher Diploma in Sri Lanka with the accreditation of British Computer Society, the Chartered Institute for IT in the UK. Successful completion of this enables the student to continue on and earn the BCS Higher Education Qualification in 12 months with exemptions.

How to get NVQ under Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL) System.

Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL) is an assessment process that assesses the person's competencies as set out in the relevant National Skills Standard, which leads to a qualification in the NVQ framework. Infortec students can apply for NVQ with non-accredited (Non NVQ) training certificates under credit transfer With TVEC registered INFORTEC branches under DCS.

How to get BCS exemptions under Accreditation of prior learning (APL) Scheme.

APL is a List of qualifications approved under the Accreditation of Prior Learning (APL) Scheme.

Exemption for BCS

Infortec HDCS (semester two of iHND) provides exemptions for BCS Certificate modules: Computer & Network Technology and Software Development and Diploma module: Object Oriented Programming, Database Systems, and Principles of Internet Technologies
If you are willing to obtain a BCS HEQ Qualification, you can get yourself registered for the test held by BCS for non-excepted modules and should pay relevant payments for BCS membership and examinations.